

Veneporte, S.A. has as main objective the production and marketing of high-quality products by optimizing the production costs, so it can meet customer's needs and expectations, at competitive prices and complying with the applicable statutory and regulatory requirements, as well as the employees, shareholders, and society in general.

In pursuit of this objective, Veneporte, S.A. Quality keeps a certified Management System according to ISO 9001, which is applied in an operative way in terms of reach and extension to the whole organization, and according to IATF16949 applicable to certain automotive products/customers.

The Quality Policy of Veneporte, S.A. promotes the internal capacity of the human technical and technological means, respect for the environment and working conditions and, at the external level, in collaboration with all concerned.

